The Charming Woman

Is not necessarily one of perfect form and features. Many a plain woman who could never serve as an artist's model, possesses those rare qualities that all the world admires: neatness, clear eyes, clean smooth skin and that sprightliness of step and action that accompany good health. A physically weak woman is never attractive, not even to herself. Electric Bitters restore weak women; give strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, beautiful complexion. Guaranteed at W. B. Frame's, City Drug Store.

SOCIETY

Among the Ardmore visitors to the assembly are Dr. R. H. Henry, wife and son, Ingram, Miss Hull, Mrs. Spruans, Mrs. Grubbs, Miss Daise, Miss Lizzie White and Mrs. Henson.

Miss Minnie Moore left this morning for Gatesville, Texas, where she will remain in the future. She joins her sister, Miss Pearl Moore, who has been in that city for several days. They both have secured positions in Gatesville.

The friends of Miss Lolla Dutton will be pleased to know that she is greatly improved after an illness of several days. Miss Dutton is still confined to the Ardmore sanitarium.

Mrs. Ed Sacra of Madril, was in the city yesterday to attend the bedside of her daughter, Mrs. L. A. Baum, who has been ill several days. Mrs. Baum is greatly improved.

Mrs. Lou M. Frame is greatly improved and is considered practically out of danger. Mrs. Frame has been ill at the Ardmore Sanitarium several days with an attack of appendicitis.

Mrs. J. W. Harrell is at home from a visit of several days with relatives and friends at Morgantown, Ky.

Miss Fay Smith has returned from Norman, where she has been attending the Oklahoma Teachers' Normal which has been in session there several days.

Mrs. J. A. Letherwood who has been spending some time with her husband in Kansas City and through the state returned Thursday.

Rules for Courtship.

Rules for sensible courtship are laid down by Father McMahon of Flushing, Long Island, are as follows:

For Young Folks.

Don't sit close.
Don't hold hands.
Don't linger half an hour over the good-by.

Don't sit up later than 10:30 p. m.
Don't take walks through lonely places.
Don't go buggy riding.

Don't marry, if you're a girl, before 24; if a man, 30.

For Parents.

Keep an eye on 'em.
Don't let a courtship extend over seven months. Ask him his "intentions."
Naturally this has provoked a good deal of comment. One noted writer on such subjects, Louise Satterthwaite says that regarding those rules with a cool and a critical eye, one can see absolutely nothing the matter with them. They are all wool and a yard wide, and if every young man and woman and parent would memorize them and put them in practice the world would be a better place.

Better far better, if lovers did not sit close; did not hold hands. It is a silly, silly practice, and nothing in it, as they themselves come to see not very long after they are married. Better if the good-bys were spoken promptly and let it end there. One good-by beats ten all to death in the matter of saving time.

To always be in bed by 10:30 is a wholesome rule in all circumstances of life.

To take walks in lonely places is another thing which is useless, and if all lovers took their walks in the crowded streets of the city—for when you are in love, you know, all places look alike to you—there would be no occasion or chance for the idle gossip of those who are spending their lives minding their neighbor's business.

Buggy riding, except in rural districts, is fast dying out.

The age limits set for marriages are most exemplary.

The rules for the parents are also most wise. All of these rules carefully followed would do much to raise the standard of the world's decorum as well as happiness.

But there is evidently one factor which the maker of the rules has forgotten to take into account, a factor which will probably go far to nullify all such well-meant advice, that factor being human nature.

For what has common sense to do with love? And what becomes of stilted rules of etiquette when young and/or leads the merry dance of light-hearted folly? As well tell a bee not to sip honey or water to stop running down hill as undertake to make such a thing as courtship sensible.

The good Father McMahon is throwing straws against the wind when he gravely instructs young lovers not to sit close nor to hold hands nor to linger over their goodnights nor to take walks in lonely places and all the rest of it.

Human nature is an ancient fashion of the blood which will not be gainsaid when youth fiddles a merry lay and love beckons and leads off the measure.

All theories and precepts which do not take human nature into account as a prime factor of life are bound to fail of their purpose.

Call for Democratic Mass Meeting. To the Democratic Voters in the City of Ardmore, Carter County, Oklahoma:

You are hereby called to meet in mass convention at the city hall in the city of Ardmore on Tuesday, July 16, 1907, at 8:30 p. m. for the purpose of selecting a member of the Democratic county central committee from each ward in said city.

The committeemen chosen at this meeting are hereby called to meet at the city hall in the city of Ardmore on Saturday, the 20th day of July, 1907, at 10 o'clock, a. m., when business of importance will come before said central committee.

FAIR WARNING TO ALL

CHIEF OF POLICE GARRETT WILL ENFORCE THE SANITARY ORDINANCE.

This is to notify all citizens of the city of Ardmore that the sanitary ordinance will be enforced to the letter of the law. Every lot, both business and residence, must be clean by Monday night. Every person who has not complied with the ordinance by Monday night will be placed under arrest Tuesday morning, July 16.

BUCK GARRETT,
9-6 Chief of Police

A Few Reasons Why.

The following are the true reasons why the Republican knockers are "agin" the constitution:
Because the democrats wrote it.
Because it separates me from my pie.

Because I don't want statehood now.
Because the state will always be democratic.

Because I will never get another office as long as I live.

Because it puts the halter on our faithful campaign friends, the trust.

Because statehood will add seven more electoral votes to the democratic column.

Because the counties are so laid off that each party may get its dues.

Because it disfranchises the trusts.

Because I like carpet bag rule better than the rule of the lousy people.

Because it gives the people a "say."

Because when statehood comes in, under it, me and Rastus will be separated—we like to ride together.

Because the people ain't got sense enough to run things.

Because there's no use in nothing anyhow; and then besides, what's the use? What's the use of state government and a constitution and all such things? The constitution? I ain't never read it, but I'm agin it—Atoka Democrat.

HEAVY RAINS AT DUNCAN

FAIR ASSOCIATION ORGANIZED WITH CAPITAL STOCK OF $25,000—OTHER LOCAL NOTES.

Ardmoreite Special.

Duncan, I. T., July 13.—The heaviest rainfall in several years was recorded here Wednesday. All trains on the Rock Island were delayed on account of the high water and washouts.

The Stephens County Fair association was organized here a few days ago and incorporated with a capital stock of $25,000. Everything will be ready by the 15th or 20th of October next. Our best citizens are behind the fair proposition. It promises to be a great success for Duncan and Stephens county.

Hon. R. J. Allen is spending a few days in Guthrie this week.

George Latwisch has gone to Dallas. Rev. John Hawkins is at Sulphur, I. T., as a delegate to the Baptist assembly.

Our town is still booming.

G. B. Burhans Testifies After Four Years.

G. B. Burhans, of Carlisle Center, N. Y., writes: "About four years ago I wrote you stating that I had been entirely cured of a severe kidney trouble by taking less than two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure. It entirely stopped the brick dust sediment, and pain and symptoms of kidney disease disappeared. I am glad to say that I have never had a return of any of those symptoms during the four years that have elapsed and I am evidently cured to stay cured, and heartily recommend Foley's Kidney Cure to any one suffering from kidney or bladder trouble." Hoffman Drug Co. and City Drug Store.

Those who use Arizona Fly Chaser on their stock are repaid many times over by the animals' bettered condition. Neither sticky nor gummy and will not blister. Sold in any quantity.

Notice Democrats.

On the 8th day of June we solicited funds for the purpose of giving the people of Ardmore complete election returns on the night of the 8th. For the reason that the votes were counted slowly we were unable to get returns sufficient to use all the money collected. Only one-fourth of the money was used for the purpose for which it was collected and any person subscribing to this fund may have their pro rata portion returned to them by phoning either to the Ardmoreite or Democrat or seeing either of us on the street. The portion of the funds not called for will be given to Cruce headquarters for the reason that a large portion of the news received by the town came from that source and the expense fell heavily upon these headquarters. We take this method of thanking the subscribers to this fund for their liberality.

WHOLESALE PRODUCE MARKET.

(Quotations Furnished by the Empire Produce Company.)

There has been a slight falling off in the wholesale produce market in the last few days except for spring chickens and ducks, which are slightly higher with a strong demand. The price of eggs shows a decrease of 7 cents owing to the hot weather but the demand is good. Turkeys are quoted at several cents lower, but these are holding up fairly well with a fair demand.

The following are the quotations:

Long Live the King
is the popular cry throughout European countries; while in America, the cry of the present day is "Long live Dr. King's New Discovery, King of Throat and Lung Remedies!" of which Mrs. Julia Ryder Paine, Truro, Mass., says: "It never fails to give immediate relief and to quickly cure a cough or cold." Mrs. Paine's opinion is shared by a majority of the inhabitants of this country. New Discovery cures weak lungs and sore throat after all other remedies have failed; and for coughs and colds it's the only sure cure. Guaranteed by W. B. Frame, City Drug Store.
